GUIDING QUESTIONS

As you continue to sit with Luke 19:1-10 and the daily scriptures that help you dig deeper into today's story of the radical unraveling of Zacchaeus vocation allow these questions to guide your quest:

- Why does Zacchaeus anticipate Jesus' arrival? What makes him believe Jesus might show mercy to a tax collector?
- According to Jewish law, restitution required paying back original funds plus one-fifth more. What does it mean that Zacchaeus offers to repay those whom he has defrauded four times more than what he took? What converts his greed into radical generosity?
- How might we, too, unravel our finances and spending practices from systems that oppress and defraud others? What does it look like to transform our own greed into generosity?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Unravel me from the ways I am entangled with systems of oppression and harm. Amen.
