GUIDING QUESTIONS

As you continue to sit with John 4:1-29 and the daily scriptures that help you dig deeper into today's story of the unraveled shame of the Samaritan woman at the well allow these questions to guide your quest:

- What barriers exist between Jesus and the Samaritan woman? How are these barriers broken down in their encounter? Think about the regional and racial barriers, the gender and power barriers, and the religious barriers.
- What do you imagine is the woman's story?
- What shame (both self-inflicted and/or places upon you by societal and cultural expectations) do you carry? What might it look like for your shame to unravel?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Unravel my shame, O God, with the promises that I am always loved and forever worthy. Amen.
