REFLECTION QUESTIONS

This week carve out time to reread Moses story from Exodus 3:1-15 in as many translations as you can find. As you do, reflect on these questions:

1. What is God saying to me today?
2. What excuses do I find myself making?
3. How is God assuring me that what God has called me to do God will make happen?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Reveal yourself today, Holy God, in the burning bush, the pillar of fire and of cloud, the miraculous and the mundane. Capture my attention that I might hear and embrace your call to follow and lead. Overshadow my doubts and insecurities by reminding me again of the gifts and skills you've embedded in my very being for this call. I draw strength knowing you've planted me alongside others that, together, we might build your Beloved Kindom. May we do so without fear or hesitation so that others might know and follow you. Amen.

DIGGING DEEPER

When Moses encountered the burning bush it not only captured his attention but proved to be the very presence of God. Moses faith was born not solely of tradition but more so of his investigation of God which blossomed into a life-giving relationship like the matriarchs and patriarchs before him. This week, through daily scripture reading and prayer we will discover the broader story of the people's experience with the very presence of God. Together let's go deeper into God's Word this week.
